E-Learning Options for Grade 11 Students September 2023:

The Ministry of Education mandates that all students who began Grade 9 in 2020-2021 must earn 2 e-learning credits as part of the requirements for Graduation unless they have requested to opt out.

- E-learning courses are independent and asynchronous. There will be no daily “Teams” meetings. The work is posted and students are to complete it on their own time.
- Students who choose e-learning will get a spare in the school day to work on the course.
- Teachers teaching e-learning will post work each day and be available via LMS or e-mail at prearranged times
- Remember **E-learning classes end with the letter “E”

E-learning Options: Choose 1 ONLY		Opt Out
CHA3UE	ICS3UE	“Opt Out Form of E-learning Graduation Requirement” must be submitted to Guidance
