

JOIN WITH ME

By Noah Trout

Join with me, brothers and sisters all over the world, to stop taking that of which is truly sacred.
Join with me to lay down your tools of death and despair, to put instruments of love and kindness into each other's hands.

Join with me to thirst for unison in the community.
Join with me to love each other no matter what stereotype or denomination.

Join with me to welcome those who are different from you into your heart.
Join with me to rise against those who deem it necessary to slaughter and mutilate precious lives due to religious, sexual orientation, race or any other form of prejudice.

Join with me to hunger for righteousness.

Join with me to respect everyone's individual and diverse body.

Join with me to show appreciation for everybody's divergent minds.

Join with me to be enlightened by every individual's personal experiences.

Join with me to cease fire and resolve any conflict peacefully, for no one should have to struggle and suffer.

Amen
