

My Promise to Spread God's Love By Vian Lelo (2020)

Lord, I am so blessed to be brought to this life as a Christian.
I am thankful for both the good and tough times
because both have taught me lessons in life.
Thank You for planting Your love inside of me
since the moment I was born.
The amount of happiness that I am feeling right now would not have existed without You.
During my weaknesses,
I find You beside me passing me strength, love, and care.

Lord, when I was born,
I was filled with sin,
but when You came,
You washed it away.
On my Baptism, I became a Christian,
life was breathed into me again,
I was born again.
The faith that was embedded inside of me on that day,
made me survive to this day.
You taught me that real love is found when one can sacrifice his own life for the other.
I get my strength from You Lord.

Lord, I want to spread love in Your name,
not any kind of love, but Yours.
My heart was filled with Your love at that moment,
but the world started dragging it, taking it, and causing it to disperse.
I want to reflect my Christianity through my personality and loving acts.
I want to inspire others to love and not hate,
to be careful with their words
because every single word can create a wound,
but I cannot do that without You.
I am going to teach humans how to love again,
how to care, be nice, and thoughtful.
I promise I will not let the darkness of this world takeover.

Amen
